GRANTS AND AWARDSCurrent Funding

Title: Truth to Power: Engaging young people in creative writing to interrupt cycles of violence.

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 11/01/2023-07/31/2024

Sponsoring Agency: Bloomberg American Health Initiative

Funding Level: $30,000

Main Objectives: I am partnering with Truth to Power to better understand the impact of violence and trauma on Baltimore City youth (ages 14-19) through writing activities and workshops including music production, producing testimony that can influence local and national policy. Our intervention centers media literacy and use of writing as a coping mechanism.

Title: Redefining and investing in community: Improving telehealth care and educational programs among people incarcerated in rural state prisons

Principal Investigators: Jacob Eikenberry; Machli Joseph (From Prison Cells to PhD)

Principal Responsibilities: Co-Investigator (community organization-led grant)

Dates: 09/22/2023-09/21/2028

Sponsoring Agency: National Institutes of Health (1OT2OD035976-01)

Funding Level: $1,212,736

Main Objectives: We will support the installation of high-speed internet into 14 state prisons within the states of Maryland and Missouri. We are prioritizing prisons in rural areas that serve a predominantly Black incarcerated population. We will also develop educational programming to reduce stigma about physical and mental health, and courses to promote physical and mental health care knowledge for people in the carceral system and staff working in the carceral system.

Title: Modern social movements to dismantle anti-Black racism in policing: Perspectives from Black youth, caregivers, and community leaders

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 07/01/2022-06/30/2024

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins University

Funding Level: $100,000

Main Objectives: In partnership with youth and their caregivers in Baltimore City, we will illuminate perspectives on modern social movements to dismantle anti-Black racism in policing (e.g., Black Lives Matter, Defund the Police, Police Free Schools). We also seek to assess the gaps and disparities in stakeholders' understanding of and attitudes about these movements and to develop and disseminate tools to support education about and opportunities for direct youth participation in these movements.

Title: Self-directed violence among Black young people exposed to police brutality

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix (Co-PI Jackson)

Dates: 08/01/2022-07/31/2024

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins University Center for Injury Research & Policy

Funding Level: $17,500

Main Objectives: This research will supplement our ongoing work elucidating the experiences of Black youth with police in Baltimore. Given the value placed on SDV prevention and addressing SDV disparities at the CDC, the proposed research has significant potential for wide dissemination in public health, laying a foundation for an e-intervention that could minimize disparities and prevent SDV among youth vulnerable to police brutality.

Title: Identifying strategies to support post-traumatic growth among Black youth exposed to police violence

Principal Investigator: Dylan Jackson

Principal Responsibilities: Co-Investigator

Dates: 07/01/2022-12/31/2023

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins Bloomberg American Health Initiative

Funding Level: $60,000

Main Objectives: This project will illuminate the trauma responses and needs of police-violence-exposed Black youth in Baltimore City and identify current and potential approaches to support their post-traumatic growth and thriving in the wake of these encounters.

Title: The implications of early justice system involvement for the transition to adulthood:

Expansion and analysis of the Fragile Families and Child Wellbeing Study

Principal Investigator: Kathryn Edin

Principal Responsibilities: Co-Investigator

Dates: 06/01/2022 – 05/31/2026

Sponsoring Agency: National Institute of Justice (15PNIJ-21-GG-00094-MUMU)

Funding Level: $1,000,000

Main Objectives: This project will fund expansion of the Fragile Families and Child Wellbeing Study (FFCWS), a large-scale longitudinal study, including a contemporary, population-based sample, coupling detailed population-based survey data, including rich measures of legal system involvement, with data on the social contexts where urban youth live from birth, in childhood and adolescence, and at the transition to adulthood.

Title: Johns Hopkins P.O.E. Total Worker Health Center in Mental Health (POE Center)

Principal Investigator: Meghan Davis/M. Daniele Fallin Ron Goetzel

Principal Responsibilities: Co-Investigator

Dates: 09/01/2021-08/30/2026

Sponsoring Agency: NIOSH (U19OH012297)

Funding Level: $6,997,680

Main Objectives: To promote worker mental health and well-being through research, education, outreach and evaluation activities that integrate the psychosocial, organizational, and environmental contexts of worker health (my focus is within policing).

Title: Toward a trauma-informed system: Improving implementation of approaches to care for youth assault trauma patients

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix (Co-PI Hoops)

Dates: 08/01/2021 – 07/31/2024

Sponsoring Agency: Innovation Grant – Johns Hopkins School of Medicine

Funding Level: $15,000

Main Objectives: For this study, we are working with adolescent patients and caregivers of adolescent patients who have received inpatient care for assault trauma and conducting medical chart reviews from 150 adolescents admitted to inpatient care for assault trauma. Results will inform changes to policies and protocols for adolescent assault survivors in the medical system.

Title: Optimizing youth-police interactions in Baltimore City: A pilot to develop a novel police training curriculum

Dates: 07/01/2021 – 06/30/2024

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins Bloomberg American Health Initiative

Funding Level: $250,000

Main Objectives: The overarching goal of our project is to co-create a training curriculum with youth, community partners, and the Baltimore City Police Department and produce preliminary materials for a novel police training curriculum on youth-police interactions.

Title: Can restoring vacant lots improve adolescent health disparities?

Principal Investigator: Kristin Mmari

Principal Responsibilities: Co-Investigator

Dates: 09/01/2020 – 08/31/2024

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins SCIBAR

Funding Level: $1,000,000

Main Objectives: We will determine whether and how restoring vacant lots can mitigate health inequalities (including violence exposure) among disadvantaged adolescents in Baltimore City. We will explore the impact of vacant lot restoration on the health and violence exposure of adolescents living in disadvantaged neighborhoods, working to develop youth health equity.

Title: Changing the paradigm: Child sexual abuse as a preventable public health problem

Principal Investigator: Elizabeth Letourneau

Principal Responsibilities: Co-Investigator

Dates: 09/01/2018 – 08/30/2024

Sponsoring Agency: NICHD (R24HD089955)

Funding Level: $2,852,301

Main Objectives: First, we will consolidate expert knowledge on child sexual abuse as a preventable public health problem. Then, we will develop messaging for use with community members about child sexual abuse as preventable. Third, we will conduct sidewalk interviews with community members using the language we have developed. This will inform future efforts to educate the public about child sexual abuse as a preventable public health problem.

Completed Funding

Title: Learning from adolescents in residential treatment during the COVID-19 pandemic

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 08/01/2021 – 12/31/2022

Sponsoring Agency: Bloomberg American Health Initiative

Funding Level: $20,000

Main Objectives: For this study, we worked with youth and staff in a juvenile prison to understand how COVID-19 has impacted educational access and health. Results are currently informing changes to policies and protocols in the facility.

Title: Elevating voices of Black students to strengthen mentoring practices among white faculty members

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 08/01/2021 – 07/31/2022

Sponsoring Agency: Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues - 2021 Grants-in-Aid Application

Funding Level: $2,000

Main Objectives: This was a student-driven project focused on elucidating recommended best practices for non-Black mentors working with Black students.

Title: Civilian and sworn police use of wellness programming and mental health needs

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 09/01/2021-08/30/2022

Sponsoring Agency: Selected NIOSH Subaward Project (U19OH012297)

Funding Level: $20,000

Main Objectives: This project focused on understanding wellness needs within a large police agency and how current wellness programming has impacted civilian and sworn personnel.

Title: Improving the health of people in the justice system: A partnership of community organizations and public health researchers

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 03/01/2021 – 06/30/2022

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins Bloomberg American Health Initiative

Funding Level: $20,000

Main Objectives: This project supported the establishment of a steering committee comprised of young people with lived experience in the legal systems to strengthen research work and support community partners and people whose health is negatively impacted by the legal system.

Title: Partnering with New York State to design a statewide substance use and mental health crisis stabilization system

Co-Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 01/01/2021 – 06/30/2021

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins Bloomberg American Health Initiative

Funding Level: $20,000

Main Objectives: In collaboration with New York State's Office of Addiction Services and Supports, Division of Criminal Justice Services, Office of Mental Health, and Department of Health, this project culminated in an evidence-informed roadmap for implementing a comprehensive substance use and mental illness crisis system in New York State.

Title: Building Our Nation's Daughters (BOND): Improving mother-daughter relationships, mental health, and reducing risk factors

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 01/01/2020 – 12/31/2020

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins Urban Health Institute

Funding Level: $10,000

Main Objectives: This funding provided extended support to conduct a mixed-methods pilot program evaluation of a nonprofit organization founded to improve single mother-daughter relationships, their mental and physical health, ensure mothers have equitable access to opportunity, and reduce risky and delinquent daughter behaviors.

Title: Building Our Nation's Daughters (BOND): A community effort to strengthen relationships and mental health between single mothers and their daughters

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 01/01/2020 – 06/30/2020

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins Bloomberg American Health Initiative

Funding Level: $20,000

Main Objectives: This funding provided a preliminary program evaluation and formative work in preparation for a more rigorous program evaluation of a nonprofit organization founded to improve single mother-daughter relationships, their mental and physical health, ensure mothers have equitable access to opportunity, and reduce risky and delinquent daughter behaviors.

Title: Advocacy training curriculum impact and effectiveness: An evaluation of the Bunting Neighborhood Leadership Program

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 01/01/2020 – 06/30/2020

Sponsoring Agency: Johns Hopkins Urban Health Institute

Funding Level: $25,000

Main Objectives: This project measured the impact and effectiveness of the Bunting Neighborhood Leadership Program since its inception. The project also included development of an ongoing evaluation plan for the program leadership staff to use over time.

Title: Examining the USCSS' Sexual Misconduct Centralized Database

Principal Investigators: Rebecca Fix & Elizabeth Letourneau

Principal Responsibilities: Co-Principal Investigator

Dates: 01/01/2019 – 06/30/2020

Sponsoring Agency: U.S. Center for Safe Sport (USCSS)

Funding Level: $150,000

Main Objectives: This project was an evaluation of the USCSS's sexual misconduct registry.

Title: Program evaluation of Scholars Committed to Psychological Education

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 08/01/2015 – 07/31/2017

Sponsoring Agency: Auburn University CLA Civic and Community Engagement Grant

Funding Level: $20,000

Main Objectives: This funding supported a preliminary program evaluation of Scholars Committed to Psychological Education.

Title: Pilot evaluation of Scholars Committed to Psychological Education

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 12/31/2014 – 07/31/2015

Sponsoring Agency: Auburn University CLA Civic and Community Engagement Grant

Funding Level: $15,000

Main Objectives: This funding provided support to conduct formative work in preparation for a more rigorous program evaluation of Scholars Committed to Psychological Education.

Title: Assessing the feasibility and efficacy of a mentoring program for students of color

Principal Investigator: Rebecca Fix

Dates: 12/31/2014 – 07/31/2015

Sponsoring Agency: APA Committee on Ethnic Minority Affairs Grant

Funding Level: $5,000

Main Objectives: This funding provided support to conduct a feasibility study for the Scholars Committed to Opportunities in Psychological Education program.
